

The Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund

A non-profit fund supported by the Weston A. Price Foundation

Legal Defense and Legislative Assistance for Family Farmers and Fresh Farm Food Consumers

Do you want to engage in or expand current farm-to-consumer sales?
Do you currently buy raw milk or participate in a cow-share, herd-share or farm-share program?
Do you live in a state that limits or prohibits raw milk sales?
Are you concerned about costly NAIS or other bureaucratic infringement of rights?

Then join your fellow farmers and consumers in the FTCLDF to protect and advance your rights to Sell, transport or purchase raw milk
Resist NAIS (National Animal Identification System)
Process and sell foods on the farm
Engage in cow-, herd- or farm-share agreements

Join Today!

Membership benefits include

24/7 access to staff attorneys
Relief from all legal fees and court costs for accepted cases*
Time-saving and cost-saving model contracts, guidelines, resources and databases

For more information or an application contact

www.farmtoconsumer.org
info@farmtoconsumer.org
703-208-FARM (3276)

Our Vision for the Future

Our farmers enjoying prosperous enterprises, free of bureaucratic interference.

Our families enjoying radiant health with unhindered access to raw milk and other nutrient-dense farm foods.

Our communities thriving with bustling fresh farm food commerce.

Our local, state and national institutions and government agencies engaged in respectful dialogue and helping to expand avenues for distribution and sale.

*Consistent with Internal Revenue Service regulations, we cannot guarantee representation in every case. However, in practice, we will come to the aid of our members to protect and advance the rights of all to grow, raise, prepare, provide or purchase and consume nutrient-dense foods.